

CONTENTS

Foreword

Phillip E. Johnson / 7

Introduction: Reclaiming Theological Education

William A. Dembski & Jay Wesley Richards / 11

PART 1: FOUNDATIONS

1 The Task of Apologetics

William A. Dembski / 31

2 The Fallacy of Contextualism

William A. Dembski / 44

3 History of Apologetics at Princeton Seminary

Raymond Cannata / 57

PART 2: SCRIPTURE

4 The Problem of Error in Scripture

William A. Dembski / 79

5 Naturalism in Theology & Biblical Studies

Jay Wesley Richards / 95

6 Old Princeton & the Doctrine of Scripture

Raymond Cannata / 111

PART 3: CHRISTOLOGY

7 Is the Doctrine of the Incarnation Coherent?

Jay Wesley Richards / 131

00-047173

8 Christology & the "Y" Chromosome
Michael D. Bush / 144

9 Can a Male Savior Save Women?
Jay Wesley Richards / 156

PART 4: THEOLOGY

10 Christianity or Feminism?
Leslie Zeigler / 179

11 Jesus' Paradigm for Relating Human Experience & Language About God
Gary W. Deddo / 187

12 A Pascalian Argument Against Universalism
Jay Wesley Richards / 207

PART 5: SCIENCE

13 What Every Theologian Should Know
About Creation, Evolution & Design
William A. Dembski / 221

14 Reinstating Design Within Science
William A. Dembski / 239

15 The Challenge of the Human Sciences:
The Necessity of an Interactive & Dualistic Ontology
Matthew Frawley / 258

Afterword

James Parker III / 274

Contributors / 278

Foreword

Phillip E. Johnson

I belong to one of nation that has b theological libera rian Church of Be try, and my wife worry every tim young) men and influenced there modernist and p
into something e

It isn't that we faith commitmen
a poor education
religious as well
oughly unrelia fallible human t rent moral agenc
social evils like
the case for moc argument all to
that the naturali
modernism ofte served behind v
analysis and cri
is true but to av
thinking anythi naturalism is a